CREST ADVISORY BOARD AND PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY FRIENDS SHARE LIFE STORIES WITH CAROLINE CICERO'S CLASSES

Caroline Cicero, PhD, MSW, MPL, invited several Crest Advisory Board members and University friends to visit her classes, meet our students, and share their experiences about aging on subjects such as physical health, work and retirement, family relationships and spiritual life. Caroline is an adjunct instructor, Division of Social Sciences, Seaver College and School of Public Policy, and teaches several Pepperdine courses relating to sociology, psychology, and social work, including the course Social Science Perspectives for an Aging World. We thank and celebrate all the people who graciously volunteered their time to help Pepperdine students by taking part in the interviews: Martha Nielson, Bob and Jackie Sutton, Michael Preece, Toby Schreiber, Bertha Lucas, Dan and Carole Stark, Joe Sargent, and Phil Mays from the Crest Associates Office.

Martha Nielsen, former Crest Associate and University friend, shares touching life stories with School of Public Policy students Tamara Mandel and Jessica Miller.

Crest Associates Dan and Carole Stark (GSEP '78) generously volunteered their time to be interviewed by Seaver students.

CREST ADVISORY BOARD – SERVING STUDENTS

The purpose of Pepperdine's Crest Advisory Board is to further the relationship between Malibu, the University, and the surrounding communities, as well as to mentor and encourage students in their endeavors. Several Board members have volunteered their time and expertise to assist current Pepperdine Ambassador Council (PAC) students with a resume review workshop in March. Board members also recently took part in an interactive PAC Meet and Greet event introducing aspiring PAC students to the program, as well as participated in a series of individual interviews with next year's PAC candidates. Crest appreciates our fantastic board members for all the ways they help our Pepperdine students!
