56th ANNUAL PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY BIBLE LECTURES
APRIL 27-APRIL 30, 1999

Communing With God Through the Psalms

I Lift Up My Soul
Hear, O Lord, and answer me, for I am poor and needy. Guard my life, for I am devoted to you. You are my God; save your servant who trusts in you. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I call to you all day long. Bring joy to your servant, for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Psalm 86:1-4
MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

God's people sing. In every age, those who love the one true God always seem to come before Him with song. And that is precisely what we shall do this year, this final year of the millennium, as we assemble for the 56th Annual Pepperdine Bible Lectures.

In truth, we will sing our way into the new century, just as the people of Israel sang their way to the Holy City at least three times a year. We will search, as well as sing, the ancient words of God's hymnal, the Psalms. Some will be sad songs — laments for our failures, our frailties, our misfortunes. And others will be glad songs — praise choruses to the God of the universe, the Father of our souls.

We welcome you to Pepperdine University and to this "pilgrim festival," which has become a yearly journey to the heart of God. The century we are concluding has been turbulent; but in many ways, it has also been triumphant. For whatever of the next century God gives us, we at Pepperdine commit ourselves to traveling the road with you, and to singing with you the glories of our King.

David Davenport
President

"What better way to prepare for entering the new era than to gather with citizens of the Kingdom and study the words of the ancient hymn writers of Israel?"
Hear, O Lord, and have mercy on me; for I am poor and needy.
Guard my life, for I am devoted to you.
You are my God; give me life, O my God, for I call to you all day long.
Bring joy to your servant, for to you, O God, I lift up my soul.

Psalm 86

Pepperdine University Affirms

That God is
That He is revealed uniquely in Christ
That the educational process may not, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process
That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise
That the quality of student life is a valid concern of the University
That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline
That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence
That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible
That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service
MESSAGE FROM THE
LECTURES TEAM

Welcome to the 1999 Pepperdine Bible Lectures! We close this century and millennium with a personal and profound theme: "I Lift Up My Soul: Communing with God through the Psalms." We believe it is an appropriate way to face the future, which is certain to be fraught with challenges, as well as with blessings.

Speakers, teachers, song leaders, praise teams, choral and dramatic groups... all have been preparing for months. They will arrive with one thought: how may we build up the people of God? And we at Pepperdine have worked diligently, preparing the program and the facilities to make your week special and spiritual.

What better way to prepare for entering the new era than to gather with citizens of the Kingdom and study the words of the ancient hymn writers of Israel? Their psalms range through the same challenges and emotions we experience today, and give us important insight into the heart of humanity and deity.

So, "come before him with joyful song... Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations." And His faithfulness will sustain us as we cross the threshold of the year 2000.

The Lectures Team

"What better way to prepare for entering the new era than to gather with citizens of the Kingdom and study the words of the ancient hymn writers of Israel?"

Helen Mattox Young was born in Bristow, Oklahoma, and was raised in Oklahoma City. She attended Harding College (now University) for two years, then transferred as a junior to George Pepperdine College in fall 1937, as the school opened its doors for its inaugural year. The next year, as a senior, she met and fell in love with a first-year professor, 23-year-old M. Norvel Young. They were married on August 31, 1939, after she graduated.

In 1941, Helen and Norvel moved to Nashville, where he preached and worked on his doctorate at George Peabody College. Helen earned her master's degree at Peabody at the same time. Then in 1944, the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock, Texas, asked the Youngs to come and minister in that city. The team of Norvel and Helen built the Broadway Church into the largest Church of Christ in the world at that time. They also initiated many other wonderful works, including “Europe for Christ” that sent food and supplies to post-war Germany, the Bible Chair at Texas Tech, the Christian Children’s Home of Lubbock, and Lubbock Christian College (now University). During those years they also founded the popular devotional guide, Power for Today.

With Mr. George Pepperdine’s urgent call of 1957, a new chapter was begun in the life of Helen and Norvel Young – and in the history of Pepperdine. Norvel accepted the presidency and Helen became the quintessential “first lady.” The next year, with the help of Mrs. Pepperdine and others, she founded the Associated Women for Pepperdine, an organization that has raised important funds for Christian scholarships. Of course, Helen worked hand-in-hand with her husband, building a viable college in Los Angeles, then building a great university in Malibu.

Through the years, Helen M. Young has written books and articles, served as a senior editor of 20th Century Christian magazine, been a sought-after speaker, and taught classes on the university level. She is the mother of four wonderful children, Emily Y. Lemley, Matt Young, Marilyn Y. Stewart, and Sara Y. Jackson. She has 14 grandchildren.

In his book, Reviving the Ancient Faith, Richard T. Hughes says that Helen Young is “perhaps the most visible and influential woman among Churches of Christ in the second half of the twentieth century . . . . she has emphasized practical Christian living, the spiritual life, and the role of the Christian woman in the modern world.”

4:30 P.M. DINNER PROGRAM

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of Rusty and Martha Bolton

Please purchase tickets ($9.50) in advance at Ticket Sales tables.

Rusty Bolton and Martha Vincent met at the Palm Avenue Church of Christ in Fresno, California. They were married there on March 24, 1956, and then moved to Texas. Martha worked while Rusty attended Abilene Christian College. Following Rusty’s graduation in 1959, the Boltons moved to New York. Stopping in Long Island, they stayed with a family that was planting a church there. What was to be a yearlong stay turned into seven. Rusty taught school while he and Martha helped plant the Huntington Station Church of Christ. After one year, Rusty began working full-time with the church. In the next six years they established congregations in nearby Commack and Patchogue.

The Boltons and their four children joined the Ernie Gills in 1966 and planted a church in a suburb of Perth, Australia. Within three years the congregation was averaging more than 100 in attendance, and the Boltons returned to the United States. Rusty preached for the Lafayette Church of Christ in Baldwin, Missouri, from 1969 to 1976.

In 1976 they returned to Fresno to work with the College Church of Christ. During their 10-year ministry the College Church became one of the largest and most influential congregations in California. After one year with the church in Roseville, the Boltons moved to Visalia for their last full-time ministry. During their 12-year ministry with the Visalia Community Church of Christ, the church enjoyed steady growth and moved into a large and beautiful new building.

Rusty and Martha have been blessed with four children: Jeffry; Stacey; and Roger; they lost a son, Danny, to kidney disease in 1987. They have 10 grandchildren. Rusty is the author of If Depends on How You Look At It.

HOUSING INFORMATION

Since Pepperdine’s Bible Lectures occur during the semester break, dormitory space is available to our lecture guests. To reserve space, please include $64.00 per twin bed when you mail your registration form. This charge covers all four nights (Tuesday through Friday). Due to the great demand for on-campus housing, dorm beds are reserved for adults only (over age 20).
Children and young people (under age 21) will be housed free of charge, provided they bring sleeping bags and sleep on the floor.
Regardless of how many nights you stay, the fee remains the same.

If you plan to come to the lectures for only a day or two, we strongly suggest that you provide for your own sleeping accommodations by staying with a friend or by making a motel reservation with one of the motels listed on page 34. Due to the limited number of beds on campus, preference is given to those who are staying for the entire week (Tuesday through Friday nights).

Please bring your own bedding. Linens are available ($16.00 per set) only to those who are either arriving by plane or are from out of state and make arrangements in advance. Dorms will be open from 12:00 noon on Tuesday, April 27, through 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 1.

Please do not arrive on campus to check into your dorm room before 12:00 noon on Tuesday, April 27.

When you arrive on campus, go directly to your pre-assigned dorm where you will obtain a packet of materials and your dorm room key. Housing check-in will begin promptly at 12:00 noon on the 27th and end at 6:00 p.m. on the same day. If you arrive after 6:00 p.m., go to Firestone Fieldhouse for the evening lecture. Following the evening lecture, housing check-in will continue in the lobby of Dorm 1 and Apt.
A-19. A housing coordinator will be available in Firestone Fieldhouse to direct you to the proper lobby.

Dorm reservations must be received by February 22. No registration will be accepted over the phone. Rooms will be pre-assigned and no changes will be made.
Indicate on your reservation form special housing requests, such as rooming close to a friend or with a particular church group, or health concerns. A confirmation of your room assignment will be mailed to you postmarked by April 6.

WE MUST ADVISE YOU THAT,
SHOULD YOU DECIDE TO CANCEL YOUR RESERVATION FOR ANY REASON, YOUR DORM FEES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE AND NON-TRANSFERABLE. Check-out time will be no later than 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 1.
Please return your key to Lecture Central if you leave before Saturday morning. There is a $35.00 charge for all unreturned keys.
Rented linens must be collected and placed in your dorm lobby.

RECREATIONAL VEHICLE
PARKING

Recreational vehicles will be parked in the apartment parking lot (Rho Lot) beginning no earlier than 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 27. There is a one-time fee of $20.00 for parking an RV on campus during lecture week. There are no hookups dumping facilities available. Please indicate on your registration form that you will bring an RV, and your temporary parking pass will be mailed to you. Your meal tickets will be issued when you arrive at the RV lot.

NOTE: We limit our daytime child care program to children between the ages of six months and six years. This is necessary because of the increasing number of children who register each year, and the limited number of child care workers. However, our evening program is open to children up to age 12.

CHILD CARE INFORMATION

1. Children must eat all meals with their parents, except for the Tuesday and Thursday dinners when an optional picnic meal is planned for the children. Cost: $3.50 per child.
2. Register your children at the child care registration desk in the Cultural Arts Center (CAC). You must sign your children in and out each time you use our program.
3. Play clothes should be worn at all times.
4. Label all items to be left in child care including toys, blankets and extra clothing. Take special care in labeling baby items (baby food jars, bottles, etc.)
5. A nap area will be available. Please send a familiar toy, blanket, etc. for your child if he/she will be napping.
6. If your child wears diapers, please be sure to provide child care workers with enough diapers, wipes, etc. to last until you return.

EXHIBIT HALLS

Exhibitors from around the world will be represented at the Pepperdine Bible Lectures this year. Among the areas included will be exhibitors from North America, Africa, Europe, South America and the Philippines. The exhibits will be located in the Student Lounge, the Tyler Campus Center (near the campus bookstore), and the Howard A. White Recreation Center.

Please try to find time in your busy week to support our exhibitors. When you visit the Exhibit Halls you will find the latest in Christian Books, Videos, Teaching Materials, and Mission Reports.

ON-CAMPUS SHUTTLE

Due to the mountainous terrain, we provide transportation around the campus for meals, classes, and the theme lectures in Firestone Fieldhouse. Shuttle vans will be in service throughout the day and evening. They will load and unload at the following locations: Main Parking Lot, the dormitories, the Seaver apartments, the School of Law, the Towers, the RV Lot, and Firestone Fieldhouse (see map). Call Lecture Central (4270) if you have a special transportation need.

PARKING INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

Because University faculty and staff continue on a regular work schedule, no parking is allowed in the Main Parking Lot, east of the Chapel Lot, or the Phillips Theme Tower Lot on Tuesday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. On Tuesday and Saturday, you will be allowed into the dorm area through the gate at the Upsilon Parking Lot for loading and unloading only, after which you must move your vehicle. You may park your car on Seaver Drive, Banowsky Boulevard, John Tyler Drive, in the RV Lot, or in the Firestone Fieldhouse Lot. No parking is allowed in the fire lanes next to the dormitories. (This is an official regulation.)

The Pepperdine University Bible Lectures began in January 1943 and were modeled after similar programs at Abilene Christian, David Lipscomb, and Harding universities. Throughout the 1940s, this significant annual forum grew in popularity, but the early 1950s saw a decline in attendance, and no program was scheduled in 1957. The Lectures took on new life with the arrival of M. Norvel Young and J. P. Sanders in the fall of that year. And by 1961, the keynote lecture program had to be moved to the Shrine Auditorium to accommodate the large numbers of people who wanted to attend. In the following years, the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena became the scene for the largest evening lectures.

The University added a special program of summer Bible lectures for 10 years beginning in 1958. However, the programs were again declining in attendance by the late 1960s and the summer lectures ended in 1967.

When Pepperdine moved to its new campus in Malibu in 1972, there was a renewal of interest in the Bible Lectures. Since that time, the lectures have grown in interest and attendance every year.

As the University looks to the 21st century, it is fully committed to pursuing the very highest academic standards within a context which celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. And we are convinced that, many years from now, when Pepperdine University celebrates a century of Bible Lectures, this annual series will continue to be a stimulating forum for the renewal and restoration of New Testament Christianity.

I lift up my Soul

Answer me quickly, O Lord;
my spirit faints with longing.
Do not hide your face from me or I will be like those who go down to the pit.
Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love,
for I have put my trust in you.
Show me the way I should go,
for to you
I lift up my Soul.

Psalm 143:7-8
