ANOTHER KINGDOM
GREAT THEMES FROM THE GOSPEL OF LUKE
55TH ANNUAL PEPPERMINE UNIVERSITY BIBLE LECTURES
APRIL 28-MAY 1, 1998
“The angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.”

(Luke 1:30–33)

“We have found this man subverting our nation. He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar and claims to be Christ, a king.”

(Luke 23:2)

“These people who have been turning the world upside down have come here also, and Jason has entertained them as guests. They are all acting contrary to the decrees of the emperor, saying that there is another king, one called Jesus.”

(Acts 17:6–7)
MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

It's time for a "reality check."

Year by year we live our lives and struggle to be Christians in a "post-Christian world." We involve ourselves in myriad activities: family affairs, employment, neighborhood and civic duties, and yes, corporate worship and Bible study. But is it possible, in the midst of all this, to slowly drift away from the central messages of the gospel of Jesus Christ? I think it is.

Occasionally, we need to check our bearings and reorient our lives; we need to return to the source. This year at Pepperdine University that source will be the Good News according to Luke.

I predict that this may be the most profound week that many of us have had in a while. I believe the ancient words of Jesus as recorded by Luke will ignite a flame that will challenge us as we haven't been challenged in a long, long time. Those words will be fearlessly proclaimed afresh by servants of the Word, without the varnish of 20th century relativism. And hundreds, perhaps thousands, will go away with new resolve to be keepers of the flame.

Welcome to the 55th Annual Pepperdine University Bible Lectures.

David Davenport
President
The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom there will be no end."

(Luke 1:26-33)

"We have found this man Jesus, who opposes payment of taxes to a king."

(Luke 18:33)

"These people who have been brought down have come here also as guests. They are all acclaiming the emperor, saying that there is no other king but Jesus."

(Acts 14:15-16)

Pepperdine University Affirms

THAT GOD IS

That He is revealed uniquely in Christ

THAT THE EDUCATIONAL PROCESS MAY NOT, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process

THAT THE STUDENT, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise

THAT THE QUALITY OF STUDENT LIFE is a valid concern of the University

THAT TRUTH, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline

THAT SPIRITUAL COMMITMENT, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence

THAT FREEDOM, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible

THAT KNOWLEDGE calls, ultimately, for a life of service
MESSAGE FROM THE LECTURES TEAM

After 20 centuries, the life and message of Jesus are more powerful and revolutionary than ever. He is a King, but like no other. His reign is universal and absolute, yet he rules in tenderness over those who voluntarily submit to him.

And Jesus has a Kingdom, but it too is like no other. His Kingdom is countercultural, and even counter-logical to modern, Information Age thinking. He calls us in mercy and understanding, but nevertheless demands that we exhibit radically different lifestyles.

More than 200 lecturers, teachers, worship leaders, performers, and facilitators are ready to help us rediscover Another King and Another Kingdom, as described by Luke in his beautiful and detailed gospel. It will not be “business as usual.” All of us are praying for revitalization.

As we edge our way toward the third millennium, the Lectures Team wants the Pepperdine Bible Lectures to be more than relevant. We want them to be life-changing. It is our hope that you will embrace with renewed strength the King of the Universe, and that you will commit yourself once again to his glorious Kingdom.

Bill Henegar, Jerry Rushford, Alan Beard, Emily Y. Lemley, Lauren Waldvogel, and Patty Atkisson

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of Lynn and Carolyn Anderson

Place: Cafeteria
Please purchase tickets ($9.50) in advance at Ticket Sales tables.

Lynn Anderson was born in Kincaid, Saskatchewan, Canada and Carolyn Bridges was born in Tupelo, Arkansas. They met during their student years at Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tennessee, and were married on March 15, 1957. Following Lynn's graduation from Harding College in 1959, they served as missionaries in British Columbia, Canada from 1960 to 1971. In the midst of these years, Lynn earned an M.A. from Harding Graduate School of Religion in 1965.

For 19 significant years (1971-1990) the Andersons ministered with the Highland Church of Christ in Abilene, Texas. During these years Lynn was Adjunct Professor of Ministry at Abilene Christian University, and he completed a doctorate in ministry at ACU in 1990. The Andersons served in ministry with the Preston Road Church of Christ in Dallas from 1990 to 1996, and then began a new chapter in their lives with the establishment of Hope Network Ministries in 1996. This is a ministry dedicated to coaching, mentoring, and equipping spiritual leaders for the twenty-first century.

Lynn has authored nine books including They Smell Like Sheep, The Shepherd’s Song, Navigating the Winds of Change, Heaven Came Down, Freshness for the Far Journey and If I Really Believe, Why Do I Have These Doubts? He is a contributing editor to Wineskins Magazine and has published articles in many other periodicals including Leadership, 21st Century Christian, Christian Chronicle, Image Magazine, Power for Today, Restoration Quarterly, and Upreach Magazine.

Lynn and Carolyn live in Dallas, Texas, but their work with Hope Network Ministries keeps them on the road for much of the year. Their homes in Abilene and Dallas have always been a haven for Christian students, ministers, and missionaries-on-leave. They have four grown children and eight grandchildren.

NOTE: We limit our daytime child care program to children between the ages of six months and six years. This is necessary because of the increasing number of children who register each year, and the limited number of child care workers. However, our evening program is open to children up to age 12.

CHILD CARE INFORMATION

1. Children must eat all meals with their parents, except for the Tuesday and Thursday dinners when an optional picnic meal is planned for the children. Cost: $3.50 per child.
2. Register your children at the child care registration desk in the Cultural Arts Center (CAC). You must sign your children in and out each time you use our program.
3. Play clothes should be worn at all times.
4. Label all items to be left in child care including toys, blankets, and extra clothing. Take special care in labeling baby items (baby food jars, bottles, etc.)
5. A nap area will be available. Please send a familiar toy, blanket, etc. for your child if he/she will be napping.
6. If your child wears diapers, please be sure to provide child care workers with enough diapers, wipes, etc. to last until you return.

EXHIBIT HALLS

Exhibitors from around the country will be located in the Oasis Cafe, Tyler Campus Center (near the bookstore), and the Howard A. White Recreation Center. These areas will make available books, videos, new teaching techniques, mission reports, and the latest Christian materials.

ON-CAMPUS SHUTTLE

Due to the mountainous terrain, we provide transportation around the campus for meals, classes, and the theme lectures in Firestone Fieldhouse. Shuttle vans will be in service throughout the day and evening. They will load and unload at the following locations: Jerry’s Tree, the dormitories, the Seaver apartments, the Towers, the RV lot, and Firestone Fieldhouse (see map). "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for I was sent for this purpose."

(Jesus in Luke 4:43)

In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

(Acts 1:1–31)

For two of those years, Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. Boldly and without hindrance, he preached the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

(Acts 28:30–31)
