HEAR THE WORD OF THE LORD

JEREMIAH'S CALL TO RENEWAL

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: "Stand at the gate of the Lord's house and there proclaim this message:

HEAR THE WORD OF THE LORD,

all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the Lord. This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place."

JEREMIAH 7:1-3

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION

Message from the President

Henri Nouwen writes of this “wordy world” in which we live. “Over the last few decades we have been inundated by a torrent of words,” he says in The Way of the Heart. “Wherever we go we are surrounded by words . . . Words, words, words! They form the floor, the walls, and the ceiling of our existence.”

Indeed, the world around us and our internal world—our thoughts, our desires, our concerns—all cry out, creating a tremendous clamor and clutter of noise that often obscures the whisper of God.

At the Pepperdine Bible Lectures this year, we shall endeavor to break through the wordy world and once again “Hear the Word of the Lord,” as He speaks to us through the prophet Jeremiah, as He calls us back to Himself.

How gracious is our God! How patient and longsuffering! How like a spring of living water! And how like straying sheep we often are, unconsciously drifting from the Shepherd of our souls.

This week in May will be a call to silence, a call to listen again to the God of Jeremiah, a call to return to God’s Word, God’s Will, God’s marvelous ways. The call is to be both listener and speaker: to hear and receive the Word of the Lord, then faithfully speak it through our lives to all who will listen. We must acknowledge our tendencies toward evil and our desire for pleasant prophecy.

These days in May will usher in springtime in Malibu, a glorious season in a lovely place. My prayer is that these days will also witness a wonderful “springtime for the soul” for thousands of seekers at the Bible Lectures. We trust that our time together will be a season of repentance and a day of great renewal.

Welcome to the campus of Pepperdine University. God has blessed us with a beautiful place in which students may learn and grow, and we gladly share it with you, our brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus. We invite you to enjoy the nooks and crannies and the broad vistas of Pepperdine, and to seek the quiet places where you may meet with God...and hear the Word of the Lord.

As a Christian University, Pepperdine Affirms

THAT GOD IS

That God is revealed uniquely in Christ

That the educational process may not,
with impunity, be divorced from the divine process

That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise

That the quality of student life
is a valid concern of the University

That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline

That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence

That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual,
or economic, is indivisible

That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service

Message from the Lectures Team

Sixty-four years of Pepperdine Bible Lectures—what a remarkable heritage of spiritual service to God's people! These wonderful conferences began before most of us were born. Think of all the great Christians who have taught or learned of our Lord in those years—many of whom are now with the Savior. And after nearly six and a half decades, Pepperdine University now presents the largest program in its history, with 272 classes and fifteen singing and drama groups.

In addition, we are excited to present seven theme lecturers who will lead us on a journey through the challenging prophecy of Jeremiah. These servants of God—Glenn Pemberton, John York, Harold Shank, Yukikazu Obata, Dan Rodriguez, Monte Cox, and David Fler—are spiritual men with the maturity and ability to expound the Scriptures and inspire us into action.

We anticipate welcoming participants from 40 states, along with attendees from more than 20 nations around the world. It is sure to be a historic occasion, and we trust that you will be on hand for this great spiritual feast.

Our Bible Lectures theme for 2007 is “Hear the Word of the Lord: Jeremiah's Call to Renewal.” It will be a powerful and timely message for God's people who are often tempted and lulled by the mesmerizing melodies of this world, soothed by false prophets as in the day of Jeremiah, and too often satisfied with self-congratulations.

Jeremiah calls for the one thing we are reluctant to offer: repentance. We are not anxious to admit that we disappoint God at times, even though we are all guilty of drifting from our first love. How can we be continually restored? How can we live in God's land, both now and in ages to come? The 2007 Pepperdine Bible Lectures will be a perfect time to return to the Lord in complete sincerity and begin again to love Him and serve Him with our whole heart.

Perhaps our campus in Malibu is a metaphor of the “land of milk and honey” of Jeremiah's day. Perhaps God is calling us, His people, to return to Him and live in the land with gratitude and devotion. Those who worked so hard to provide the Malibu home for Pepperdine believed with all their heart that it was none other than God Himself who ultimately provided this miraculous place. For what purpose? To serve students, yes; but also and finally to serve the Living God.

And so we welcome you to God's place to hear God's message through the ancient prophecy of Jeremiah. Come and hear the Word of the Lord!

The Lectures Team

Kym Dildine, and Erin Newton

Our Bible Lectures theme for 2007 is

“Hear the Word of the Lord: Jeremiah's Call to Renewal.”

It will be a powerful and timely message for God's people who are often tempted and lulled by the mesmerizing melodies of this world, soothed by false prophets as in the day of Jeremiah, and too often satisfied with self-congratulations.

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of Charles & Judy Siburt

Place: Rockwell Dining Center
*Please purchase tickets ($10.50)
in advance at Ticket Sales tables.

Charles Siburt from Midland, Texas, and Judy Bailey from San Diego, California, met and began dating as students at Lubbock Christian College in 1965-66. They transferred to Abilene Christian College in the fall of 1966 and were married at La Mesa Church of Christ near San Diego on December 28, 1967.

Following their wedding they returned to ACC to continue their education. Charles completed a B.A. in Bible in 1968, and Judy earned her B.S. in Education in 1969. At the ACC commencement in August 1971, they graduated together with Charles receiving the Master of Divinity degree and Judy receiving the Master of Education in Guidance and Counseling degree.

Immediately after their graduation from ACC, the Siburts moved to Fort Collins, Colorado, where Charles preached for the Meadowlark Church of Christ and Judy served as a School Counselor for Ramey Elementary School. In August 1973, they moved to Austin, Texas, where Charles served as Associate Minister for the University Church of Christ. Their first son, John, was born in Austin in 1974. In December 1975, they moved to Tyler, Texas, where Charles began a ministry of more than 12 years with the Glenwood Church of Christ. Their second son, Ben, was born in Tyler in 1978. From 1979 to 1988, Judy continued her career as a School Counselor at Hubbard Middle School in Tyler. Charles completed his Doctor of Ministry degree at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in 1978.

In the summer of 1988, the Siburts returned to Abilene, Texas, where Charles has served as Professor of Ministry at Abilene Christian University for the past 19 years. Judy was a School Counselor at Franklin Middle School in Abilene from 1988 to 1990, and she is now in her 17th year as a School Counselor at Abilene High School. From 1998 to 2003, Charles was Frazer Professor of Church Enrichment and Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program in the Graduate School of Theology at ACU. In 2003 he became Vice President for Church Relations at ACU, and he continues to serve in this vital position. For the past 19 years, Charles has conducted numerous seminars and participated in consultations with scores of congregations throughout the USA and Canada.

University Church of Christ in Abilene is the Siburt's home church. Charles serves as an elder and Judy chairs the worship committee. The Siburt's sons are now married and both are serving as ministers. John and Sarah Siburt live in Richardson, Texas, where John preaches for the Richardson East Church of Christ. Ben and Emme Siburt live in Tyler, Texas, where Ben is an Associate Minister with the Glenwood Church of Christ. The greatest joy in life for Charles and Judy is the time spent with their three grandchildren, Katie, David, and Caroline. The Siburts will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary on December 28, 2007.

National Day of Prayer

May 3, 2007

Pepperdine University reminds those attending the Bible Lectures that the National Day of Prayer occurs during our time together. This annual emphasis on prayer, established by Congress, encourages Americans to pray for our nation, its people, and its leaders. The theme for the National Day of Prayer in 2007 is "America, Unite in Prayer".

Dinner Program

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of Lynn & Joy McMillon

Place: Rockwell Dining Center
*Please purchase tickets ($10.50)
in advance at Ticket Sales tables.

Lynn McMillon and Joy Cole met as students at Midwest City High School near Oklahoma City. They began dating after they both enrolled at Oklahoma Christian College and were married on September 1, 1962. Following their graduation in 1963, they moved to Memphis, Tennessee, where Lynn completed the M.A. and M.Th. degrees at Harding Graduate School of Religion and preached for the Church of Christ in Coldwater, Mississippi. Their first son, Jeff, was born in Memphis in June 1965.

The McMillons joined the OCC faculty in the fall of 1966 with Lynn teaching Bible and history, and Joy teaching English. Lynn served as Associate Minister with Wilshire Church of Christ in 1967-1968 (and again in 1971-1975), and Joy completed her M.A. in English at Central State University and later pursued a master's degree in counseling. Their second son, Greg, was born in Oklahoma City in November 1968. On a leave of absence from OCC in December of 1968, the McMillons moved to Waco, Texas, where Lynn enrolled in Baylor University. He completed a Ph.D. in Religion with an emphasis in Church History in 1972. While in Waco, he was the Education Minister for the Columbus Avenue Church of Christ from 1969-1971.

Lynn and Joy returned to OCC (now Oklahoma Christian University) in the summer of 1971, where they have continued to live and minister in the community for the past 36 years. Joy has served as an adjunct Bible teacher for the university. Lynn was promoted to Distinguished Professor of Bible in 1987 and was Chairman of Graduate Bible from 1990-2001. He has served as Dean of the College of Biblical Studies since 1996.

The Memorial Road Church of Christ is the McMillon's home church. For the past 16 years, Lynn has served as an elder and Joy has been director of the Center for Women's Bible Study. Joy was Managing Editor of The Christian Chronicle from 1982-1989, and she is currently an Associate Editor. Lynn was General Manager of The Christian Chronicle from 1996-2004. He was name President and CEO of this influential international newspaper in 2004 and Editor in 2006. Lynn has been in practice as a Licensed Marital and Family Therapist for the past 34 years. Lynn and Joy have enjoyed international travel making more than fifteen trips to places such as Italy, Greece, Turkey, Jordan, Israel, Egypt, Australia, and South America.

The McMillon's sons are married and they both live nearby. Jeff is the campus minister for Memorial Road Church of Christ, and his wife, Sydney, directs the Sonshine School. Greg and his wife, Regina, are both trained nurses. Lynn and Joy are blessed to be able to spend time with their five grandchildren, Shelby, Savannah, Hannah, Haley, and Caden. The McMillons will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary on September 1, 2007.

A Daily Class in Smothers Theatre.

A Night to Remember. More than 10,000 were at the Los Angeles Sports Arena for the closing night of the 19th Annual Bible Lectures on March 22, 1962. George Pepperdine (on the gurney at right) spoke to the crowd in his last public appearance. He died four months later.

Spring has returned to beautiful Southern California, and hundreds of Christians from more than forty states and more than twenty foreign countries are making their annual pilgrimage to Malibu to attend the Bible Lectures at Pepperdine University. It was at these very lectures forty-five years ago, that George Pepperdine lifted the vision of his brothers and sisters in Christ for the last time.

Speaking from a stretcher before a crowd of more than 10,000 at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, the frail founder of the college spoke of the joys of being a Christian and urged everyone present to walk closer to God. The crowd gave him a standing ovation.

Rarely can it be said of an educational institution that it is but the lengthening shadow of one person. Yet in the case of Pepperdine University, the continuing influence of the humble and Christ-like life of George Pepperdine is indeed noteworthy.

The story of a Kansas farm boy who parlayed a five dollar investment into a multi-million dollar fortune and then gave most of it away is the stuff of American legend. When George Pepperdine celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday on June 20, 1961, he received a telegram from President John F. Kennedy which said in part, "I extend my own congratulations to a man who had the vision to make a fortune and the courage to give it away for the benefit of humanity."

George Pepperdine's favorite Scripture, which has become the motto of the college he founded, was "Freely ye have received, freely give" (Matthew 10:8). These words of Jesus literally shaped his life, and at the age of fifty, with many attractive opportunities before him, he decided to invest his fortune in the Christian education of young people. He poured nearly $3 million into the land and buildings (more than $50 million in 2007 dollars), established an endowment for the college, and began the task of assembling a corps of dedicated Christians to serve as administrators and faculty.

Mr. Pepperdine had a distinct dream for the college he founded in 1937. He wanted the school to be one of the finest academic institutions in the nation. But he longed for more. There were already hundreds of fine institutions with outstanding programs and eminent faculty. However, he honestly believed that "to educate a man's mind but not to educate his heart is to make a dangerous man." He dreamed of a school that educated students from the perspective of a Christian worldview.

When the annual Bible Lectures week was inaugurated in 1943, no one was more supportive than George Pepperdine. He attended every year. In addition to serving as a chairman of the board of his college for twenty years, Mr. Pepperdine served as an elder in the Church of Christ for nearly forty years. He always looked for ways to strengthen the Churches of Christ, and his good works were legendary.

Near the close of his life, when his personal fortune was virtually depleted, George Pepperdine published his autobiography and appropriately called it Faith is My Fortune. At the end of the inspirational volume he wrote:

I am thinking with deep regret that I have had only one life to give for the Cause of Christ and only one fortune to give for the promotion of Christian Education. If I had many more of each I would gladly give them all for such causes.

It may have been only "one life," but that life touched many lives. As a new generation of Christians assembles for the 64th annual feast of Bible Lectures week, the lengthening shadow of George Pepperdine falls gently over the proceedings. May the faith that sustained this servant-leader be our fortune too.

Throughout the years of the 1940s, this significant annual forum grew in popularity, but the early 1950s saw a decline in attendance, and no program was scheduled in 1957.

The Bible Lectures took on new life with the arrival of M. Norvel Young and J. P. Sanders in the fall of that year. By 1961, the keynote lecture program had to be moved to the Shrine Auditorium to accommodate the large numbers of people who wanted to attend. In the following years, the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena became the scene for the largest evening lectures.

The University added a special program of summer Bible Lectures for 10 years beginning in 1958. However, the programs were again declining in attendance by the late 1960s and the summer lectures ended in 1967.

When Pepperdine moved to its new campus in Malibu in 1972, there was a renewal of interest in the Bible Lectures. Since that time, the lectures have grown in interest and attendance every year.

As the University moves forward into the future, it is fully committed to pursuing the very highest academic standards within a context which celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. The Department of Church Relations is convinced that many years from now, when Pepperdine University celebrates a century of Bible Lectures, this annual series will continue to be a stimulating forum for the renewal and restoration of New Testament Christianity.

The traditional joining of hands during the singing of "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" was a memorable conclusion for those in attendance in 2006.

This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: "Stand at the gate of the Lord's house and there proclaim this message:

HEAR THE WORD OF THE LORD,

all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the Lord. This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place."

JEREMIAH 7:1-3
