66TH ANNUAL BIBLE LECTURES

MAY 5-8, 2009

MALIBU, CALIFORNIA

THE PREEMINENCE OF CHRIST IN COLOSSIANS
He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all Creation; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities — all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

COLOSSIANS 1:15-20
The Revised Standard Version
Message from the President

It is my great privilege and pleasure to welcome you to the Pepperdine University Bible Lectures for 2009. Our hope is that this will be a week of many blessings.

My wish for you in these days in early May is that you enjoy a season of refreshment and fulfillment. Some of you come to teach or deliver a lecture or participate in a praise group or other presentation. May the Spirit enable you to minister in the name of Jesus Christ. Many of you come seeking a spiritual blessing for your life. May God grant you the desire of your heart—and may you leave with incredible enthusiasm and determination to press upward in the Kingdom of Light. Others of you come in the hope of seeing old friends and loved ones. May you have the reunion of your life—precious memories that will linger long after you return home. Whatever your reasons for coming, my wish is for your complete spiritual fulfillment in these blessed days, because God is near—and we dare not miss Him.

I hope you will pardon our construction clutter this year. We apologize for the inconvenience—but not much! Because, the momentary inconvenience is the forerunner of new and renovated facilities that will bless our students and also bless you, on your next trip to campus. And by the way...

Here is my suggestion and my hope: when you walk around construction obstacles and incomplete campus features, remind yourself that “Under Construction” is an exciting announcement of greater things to come. But don’t stop there—remind yourself that you too are “under construction,” and God is transforming you “into His likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.” Let our campus be a parable of your own life, and celebrate what the Lord is doing for and in you!

And now, may “The Lord of Creation” Himself guard and strengthen our hearts and minds, and may He fill us with an understanding of His incomparable power and majesty through Christ!

Andrew K. Benton
President
As a Christian University, Pepperdine Affirms

THAT GOD IS

That God is revealed uniquely in Christ

That the educational process may not, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process

That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise

That the quality of student life is a valid concern of the University

That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline

That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence

That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible

That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service
The theme that draws us together in Malibu in May 2009 is a truly exhilarating one. The letter to the Colossians may seem brief, but it is packed with eternity and purpose, penetrated by the second person of the Godhead—Jesus Christ our Savior and Master. The letter was written by Paul from prison, and perhaps his lonely hours in chains prompted the apostle to search throughout the universe, throughout all existence, for the ultimate meaning of Christ.

The city of Colossae that stood on a major trade route between Ephesus and the Euphrates is lost in antiquity; archaeologists have unearthed ruins of the modest structure where Christians once met; but the short message they joyously received nearly 2,000 years ago lives today! And it is explosively powerful! We shall lovingly examine it and embrace it during the Pepperdine Bible Lectures this year. Our goal is to grasp a sense of how much greater Christ is than we ever imagined, of how much more expansive is the peace He brings and administers and reigns over!

The Bible Lectures continue to grow. This year there are 300 presenters and speakers. And they travel to Malibu from 37 states across America and from 17 other nations. In fact, the Bible Lectures are increasingly more international in scope, by design. We want to hear from those who preach and teach in far away places. For God not only spoke and worked in the past, He speaks and works today through His servants around the globe. If you have attended the Bible Lectures in recent years, you know we love to honor those who labor in difficult corners of the world. We want them to know they are not alone—not only is God working in and through them, but a grateful fellowship is supportive of their sacrifices and hard-fought victories.

Despite the construction under way on the central campus, Pepperdine University is ready to host the thousands that will journey to Malibu, seeking a blessing from the Lord. As a Lectures Team, our mission is to make your stay as comfortable and rewarding as possible. Please call on us if we may be of service.

Many hundreds of devoted Christians have been preparing for months to accomplish one great purpose: to inspire and edify the Body of Christ. Through lectures, classes, presentations, and praise, they will glorify the risen Christ who now reigns over all things in heaven and earth. Perhaps the most exciting thing about every Bible Lectures program is that we never know what to expect—because it is always in God’s hands. With all the turmoil in our nation and the world, with such uncertainty and trepidation, we can be confident that God will comfort and strengthen His people. In that confidence, we warmly welcome you to “The Lord of Creation: The Preeminence of Christ in Colossians.”

Evertt Huffard serves as VP/Dean of Harding University Graduate School of Religion in Memphis, Tennessee, where he has taught missions and leadership since 1987. In 1997 he received the Distinguished Teacher Award from Harding University. Since 2002 he has served as an elder for the Church of Christ at White Station. Since 1998 Ileene Huffard has served as Memphis Director of Graduate Studies in Education for Freed Hardman University where she also teaches graduate courses in teacher licensure and school administration. She also supervises student teachers in the Memphis area schools.

Evertt’s cross-cultural ministry began as a teenager when his parents, Evertt and Elsie Huffard, moved to Jerusalem in 1963. He returned to the States in 1967. Evertt and Ileene completed degrees from Lubbock Christian University and Harding University. They married in 1971 and moved to Memphis where Ileene completed a M.Ed. at the University of Memphis and Evertt completed the M.A. in missions and the M.Th. at Harding University Graduate School of Religion. In 1976 they moved to Nazareth, Israel, where Evertt taught Bible at Galilee Christian High School and worked with the Nazareth Church of Christ. They returned to the States in 1981 and moved to Los Angeles where Evertt completed a Ph.D. in Inter-Cultural Studies at Fuller Theological Seminary with a focus on the Muslim-Christian encounter. Ileene taught science at San Fernando Valley Christian School and Evertt taught in the Religion Division at Pepperdine. They moved to Memphis in 1987.

From 1988-1999 Evertt served as Director of the Doctor of Ministry program Harding Graduate School. He has ten years of urban ministry experience in Los Angeles and Memphis. He helped the church in Montebello, California transition to a Hispanic church. He frequently lectures on spiritual leadership, missions, and the Muslim-Christian encounter. Since 9/11 he has spoken to over 120 churches and schools on “Understanding Our Muslim Neighbors.” For over two decades, Evertt has served as a consultant for church leaders and mission teams. In the past five years he has consulted or participated in leadership retreats in 18 churches in 13 states as well as in Canada, England, Israel, Korea, and Switzerland. He has assisted in developing mission teams to Africa, Australia, South America and Europe. Every year for the past 20 years he has taught a course at Harding Graduate School on “Spiritual Leadership.”

Ileene completed an Ed.D. in Leadership and Policy Studies at the University of Memphis and a Masters of Arts in Christian Ministry at HUGSR in 2008. Since 1995 Ileene has served on the missions committee for the Church of Christ at White Station. In 2007 she led a one week seminar for teachers at the Village of Hope in Ghana. She co-authored a book entitled Taming the Dragon Within: How to be the Mother-in-law You have Always Wanted (2008). For nine years she taught children in the inner city ministry in Memphis. The Huffards have three children, Ellen, Charissa, and Stephen, and six grandchildren.

National Day of Prayer

May 7, 2009

Pepperdine University reminds those attending the Bible Lectures that the National Day of Prayer occurs during our time together. This annual emphasis on prayer, established by Congress, encourages Americans to pray for our nation, its people, and its leaders. The theme for the National Day of Prayer in 2009 is “Prayer...America’s Hope.”

An Evening Lecture in Firestone Fieldhouse.

Fred Gray was born on December 14, 1930, in Montgomery, Alabama. His parents were members of the Holt Street Church of Christ and Fred was raised with a deep love for the church. At the age of 12, he enrolled in Nashville Christian Institute in Nashville, Tennessee, to study under Marshall Keeble. He remained at NCI for five years, and he was one of the first two “boy preachers” who travelled around the country with Marshall Keeble. During these years, Fred preached for Churches of Christ in Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, and Georgia.

Fred returned home and graduated from Alabama State University in Montgomery. His desire to become a lawyer led him to Cleveland, Ohio where he enrolled in the law school at Case Western Reserve University and preached for the University Church of Christ. Upon graduation, Gray returned to Montgomery to establish a law practice. At age 24, he represented Mrs. Rosa Parks who refused to give up her seat to a white man on a city bus, the action that initiated the Montgomery Bus Boycott. Gray was also Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s first civil rights lawyer. This was the beginning of a law career that has now spanned 55 years.

Early in his law career, Fred met Bernice Hill at the Gaile Street Church of Christ in Montgomery and they were married on June 17, 1956. In addition to his law practice, Fred became the preacher for the New Town Church of Christ in Montgomery. Fred and Bernice raised four children, two sons and two daughters. In her professional career, Bernice was a legal secretary and real estate broker. All four of the Gray children came to faith at the New Town Church of Christ, and were baptized into Christ by their father. Bernice died in March 1997, and Fred married Carol Porter from Cleveland, Ohio in December 2000. Fred has 5 grandchildren and 1 step grandchild.

Gray has been a member of the Tuskegee Church of Christ for many years, and he has now served as an elder in this church for more than 33 years. Today, Fred’s two daughters, Deborah and Vanessa, are members of the Southside Church of Christ in Montgomery. Fred’s two sons are both active in the Tuskegee Church of Christ. Fred Jr. serves with his father as an elder in that congregation, and Stanley serves as a deacon. In the early 1970s, Gray became a member of the Board of Trustees of Southwestern Christian College in Terrell, Texas, and he served as Chairman of the Board from 1983 to 1998. He has also served on the Board of Trustees at Faulkner University, a Christian university in Montgomery, for the past 12 years. In 2002-03, Gray became the first African-American to serve as President of the Alabama State Bar Association. He is also the founder and president of the Tuskegee Human and Civil Rights Multicultural Center. Gray has received honorary doctorates from three universities affiliated with Churches of Christ, Pepperdine, Abilene Christian, and Faulkner.

On the closing night of the 52nd annual Bible Lectures in the Spring of 1995, Max Lucado preached on Christ’s prayer for unity in John 17.

At the Pepperdine Bible Lectures in the Spring of 1949, James Scott, Marshall Keeble, and E. W. McMillan (l to r) were three of the featured speakers.

Marshall Keeble and four of his "boy preachers" in 1946. The young man seated on the right is 15-year-old Fred Gray. Fred Gray will be honored with an Appreciation Dinner at this year’s Pepperdine Bible Lectures.

Anchored in the Past, Committed to the Future

The Pepperdine University Bible Lectures began in January 1943 and were modeled after similar programs at Abilene Christian, David Lipscomb, and Harding universities. Throughout the years of the 1940s, this significant annual forum grew in popularity, but the early 1950s saw a decline in attendance, and no program was scheduled in 1957. The Bible Lectures took on new life with the arrival of M. Norvel Young and J. P. Sanders in the fall of that year. By 1961, the keynote lecture program had to be moved to the Shrine Auditorium to accommodate the large numbers of people who wanted to attend. In the following years, the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena became the scene for the largest evening lectures.

The University added a special program of summer Bible Lectures for 10 years beginning in 1958. However, the programs were again declining in attendance by the late 1960s and the summer lectures ended in 1967. When Pepperdine moved to its new campus in Malibu in 1972, there was a renewal of interest in the Bible Lectures. Since that time, the lectures have grown in interest and attendance every year.

As the University moves forward into the future, it is fully committed to pursuing the very highest academic standards within a context which celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. The Department of Church Relations is convinced that many years from now, when Pepperdine University celebrates a century of Bible Lectures, this annual series will continue to be a stimulating forum for the renewal and restoration of New Testament Christianity.

The traditional joining of hands during the singing of “The Lord Bless You and Keep You” was a memorable conclusion for those in attendance in 2008.
He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all CREATION; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities — all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be PRE-EMINENT. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.
