GOD’S UNCHANGING FAITHFULNESS
THE STEADFAST LOVE OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER

68TH ANNUAL BIBLE LECTURES
May 3 - 6, 2011
Malibu, California
Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name.

FOR THE LORD IS GOOD AND HIS LOVE ENDURES FOREVER; HIS FAITHFULNESS CONTINUES THROUGH ALL GENERATIONS.

Psalm 100
The New International Version
Message from the President

Many believe we are at a turning point in America. But whether that be true or not, we are always at a crossroads, constantly challenged by our God. It’s important to reexamine our relationship with the Creator, and this year’s Bible Lectures provide a tremendous opportunity to do just that.

Two thoughts leap to mind as we approach this year’s theme, “God’s Unchanging Faithfulness.” First, we must open our eyes to the unsurpassed majesty of the God of the Universe. The Book of Psalms, our text for this week, leaves no doubt that God reigns supreme... He is high and lifted up, far beyond all other beings and powers. No one or no thing is remotely like Him. Not only is He all powerful and all loving, but also His very Name is majestic in all the earth. The 2011 Pepperdine Bible Lectures will challenge us to come before our magnificent God and endeavor to behold His beauty, His excellence and His enduring faithfulness!

A second thought follows immediately as we pause to consider the source of all goodness and life. God’s steadfast love and creative power call for our sincerest and most profound praise. It is true that we often fail to adequately acknowledge, on a daily basis, the God in whom we live and move and have our being. But even when we do remember Him, our feeble efforts at praise seem to fall far short of what He deserves, and we may become discouraged. However, we will be called to reflect more deeply, to sing a new song, and to find fresh ways to lift high the Name that is above all names. It is likely to be a challenge that has eternal consequences.

We hope you will feel at home at Pepperdine, and we trust you will enjoy the wonder of God’s earth that He so beautifully displays on the mountains above the sea in Malibu. He has given us this lovely campus to use to His glory. And we encourage you to come before our reigning Lord—in joyful assembly with many of His children—to seek a new depth of understanding of Him and a more profound expression of praise to the One who made us, who loves us and who wants us to know Him intimately.

Much human effort has gone into preparing for this spiritual conference. But we want you to know, we believe it is the Holy Spirit who will bring great things into our lives—if we allow Him to live and work through us. May these special days prepare you to thrive and to serve more fully in the power of praise, because of God’s steadfast love.

As a Christian University, Pepperdine Affirms

THAT GOD IS

That God is revealed uniquely in Christ

That the educational process may not, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process

That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise

That the quality of student life is a valid concern of the University

That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline

That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence

That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible

That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service
Long ago, God’s people would journey from near and far to the mount of God, to present themselves before the Lord at His holy temple. And as they went up to Jerusalem, they would joyfully sing the “Psalms of Ascent,” the “going up” songs. We hope that many thousands of Christians will have that kind of exhilarating attitude as they travel to Pepperdine University in Malibu, California, to seek a deeper faith and experience from the Lord of Heaven.

This year at the 68th annual Bible Lectures, we believe there will be a spirit of joy and praise that is more profound than in all the preceding years of this forum! That is our desire and our prayer as a Lectures Team. And it is the goal toward which we have been striving for many months now.

As you know, there are moments that come in a person’s life that never appear again—the birth of a child, the warmth of a new love, that certain sunset over the ocean, the morning fog in the pines. Seven men of God will be in Malibu to bring us before the Lord of unchanging faithfulness, and they will open “God’s hymnal,” the extraordinary Book of Psalms. And we believe these will be moments not to be missed. We are convinced that they will point us toward the incomparable Christ and the everlasting Father of Lights. God knows that words and music can do things to the human heart that nothing else can do. That’s why the Psalms have blessed millions of people through the ages. And this week in Malibu will be like no other.

Perhaps you are aware that we have been expanding the Pepperdine Bible Lectures into an international forum, and this year we will welcome participants from 30 nations around the world, including teachers from 40 states of America. There will be an anticipatory spirit of Pentecost in the air as people stream onto campus and into more than 300 classes and events presented by excellent and enthusiastic teachers and performers. There’s nothing quite like it, from brilliant mornings to star-studded evenings.

Now is a historic time, as human events seem to be reaching a crescendo. Now is the time for Christians to be about the business of God’s kingdom—now, more than ever! This special week will be about lifting highest praise and adoration to the God who is good beyond compare and whose love endures forever! Welcome . . . as you join the saints who are singing the “going up” songs to the Lord, here above the endless sea that stretches out like the limitless love of God!

True Lift
Pepperdine University
Caroline Shaeffer and Gail Hopkins met at Pepperdine in the fall of 1962, and they were married by Paul King at the Central Church of Christ in Stockton on May 30, 1964. Following their wedding, they moved to Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, so Gail could play minor league baseball. This was the beginning of a 14-year chapter in their lives when they combined college studies and baseball. Caroline graduated from Pepperdine with a B.A in Sociology in 1964, and Gail graduated from Pepperdine in 1966 with a double major in Biology and Religion.

Beginning in 1968, Gail played seven seasons in the major leagues with the Chicago White Sox, the Kansas City Royals, and the Los Angeles Dodgers. He closed his baseball career by playing two seasons with the Hiroshima Carp in Japan. He broke the club home run record his first season, and he hit a three-run home run to win the 1975 Japan Series. During these busy years, Caroline graduated from Pepperdine with an M.A. in Education in 1971, and she completed a BSN at Elmhurst College in 1981. Gail received an M.D. degree from Rush Medical College in 1981. Caroline graduated from Pepperdine with an M.A. in Religion in 1977, and she completed a BSN at Elmhurst College in 1981.

Gail is the only player in the history of major league baseball to earn both a double major in Biology and Religion.

Gail became a board-certified orthopedic surgeon in 1988, and he has worked in private practice in Lodi, California, and Hinsdale, Illinois, where he was chief of the surgery department at Hinsdale Hospital. Today he is an orthopedic surgeon in Parkersburg, West Virginia. Caroline and Gail have been active in Churches of Christ in Illinois, California, and West Virginia, and Gail served as an elder in four of these churches. Gail has served on the boards of two universities affiliated with Churches of Christ. He has been a member of the Pepperdine University Board of Regents for the past 25 years, and he has been a member of the Ohio Valley University Board of Trustees in Vienna, West Virginia, for the past 18 years and has been the Chairman of the Board since 2004.

Caroline and Gail are the proud parents of two physicians. Leah graduated from Pepperdine in 1991 and earned an M.D. from Loyola University Medical School in 1996. She is an Internal Medicine Specialist and has a private practice in Parkersburg, West Virginia. She has served as president of Stepping Stones, a women’s support group for Ohio Valley University. Gail II graduated from Pepperdine in 1991 and earned an M.D. from Loyola University Medical School in 1996. He is an orthopedic surgeon in Redlands, California. He married Kelly Coulson in 2008, and they have one son, Bryce Hopkins, who was born August 26, 2009. Gail Hopkins, Pepperdine’s All American catcher (1962-64), will celebrate 47 years of marriage to Caroline Shaeffer, Pepperdine’s 1964 Homecoming Queen, on May 30, 2011.

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of Billy & Mary Curl

Place: Rockwell Dining Center

*Please purchase tickets ($11.00) in advance at the Ticket Sales Table.

Billy Curl attended Southwestern Christian College in Terrell, Texas, from 1960 to 1962. He was baptized into Christ in December 1960 and began preaching in January 1961. Mary Davis was raised in Abilene, Texas, and attended the Treadaway Church of Christ. In September 1962, Billy was one of the first two black students to enroll at Abilene Christian College, and he met Mary at church. While Billy was earning a B.A. degree in Speech at ACC, Mary was enrolled in the School of Nursing at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene. In his last year at ACC (1963-64) Billy preached for the Church of Christ in Colorado City, Texas.

Billy and Mary were married in Abilene by Victor Rodriguez on March 18, 1964. Following Billy's graduation from ACC, the Curls left Abilene to become missionaries to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. They served for six years in Ethiopia and were involved in establishing 30 congregations of the Church of Christ which have now grown to more than 300 congregations with about 35,000 members. Within a year after they returned home from the mission field, Billy and Mary were called to work with the Crenshaw Church of Christ in Los Angeles.

During his long years of service with the Crenshaw Church of Christ, Billy has been involved in several local ministries including teaching at Los Angeles Bible College and being a panelist on “The Way of Truth” television program. He was president of the Board of Directors of Normandie Christian School, vice chairman of the Church of Christ Foundation, and he worked with R. N. Hogan to direct the National Crusade for Christ when it came to Los Angeles in July 1993. Like her husband, Mary Curl has always been “ready for every good work.” At Crenshaw she has taught the Ladies’ Bible class, worked with the New Convert’s Ministry, worked with the visitation committee, and with the married couples ministry. She has taught the sixth grade Bible class for many years, and she is currently teaching the pre-school Bible class.

The Curls have returned to Africa several times, and they have assisted with mission campaigns in South Africa, Kenya, and Ethiopia. Southwestern Christian College added Billy to their Board of Trustees in 1995, and Abilene Christian University invited him to serve on their Board of Trustees beginning in 2000. Billy continues to serve with both of these schools. Billy and Mary have two children and five grandchildren. The Curls will pass several significant milestones in 2011. The 50th anniversary of Billy’s first sermon will take place in January and the Curls will celebrate their 47th wedding anniversary on March 18. On October 1, 2011, they will celebrate the 40th anniversary of their long and fruitful ministry with the Crenshaw Church of Christ. Reflecting on this coming anniversary, Mary writes: “What blessing indeed! We love it at Crenshaw and we love the Christians who worship there.”

Bibliography

The Pepperdine University Bible Lectures began in January 1943 and were modeled after similar programs at Abilene Christian, David Lipscomb, and Harding universities. Throughout the years of the 1940s, this significant annual forum grew in popularity, but the early 1950s saw a decline in attendance, and no program was scheduled in 1957.

The Bible Lectures took on new life with the arrival of M. Norvel Young and J. P. Sanders in the fall of that year. By 1961, the keynote lecture program had to be moved to the Shrine Auditorium to accommodate the large numbers of people who wanted to attend. In the following years, the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena became the scene for the largest evening lectures.

The University added a special program of summer Bible Lectures for 10 years beginning in 1958. However, the programs were again declining in attendance by the late 1960s and the summer lectures ended in 1967.

When Pepperdine moved to its new campus in Malibu in 1972, there was a renewal of interest in the Bible Lectures. Since that time, the lectures have grown in interest and attendance every year.

As the University moves forward into the future, it is fully committed to pursuing the very highest academic standards within a context which celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. The Department of Church Relations is convinced that many years from now, when Pepperdine University celebrates a century of Bible Lectures, this annual series will continue to be a stimulating forum for the renewal and restoration of New Testament Christianity.

The joining of hands during the singing of “The Lord Bless You and Keep You” is a special closing-night tradition in Firestone Fieldhouse.
Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name.

FOR THE LORD IS GOOD AND HIS LOVE ENDURES FOREVER; HIS FAITHFULNESS CONTINUES THROUGH ALL GENERATIONS.

Psalm 100
The New International Version
