LIFTED UP BY HOPE IN ROMANS 5-8

LIVING BETWEEN THE TIMES

69th Annual Bible Lectures
May 1-4, 2012
Malibu, California
For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of GOD, which is in Christ Jesus our LORD.

Romans 8:38-39

King James Version 1611
Message from the President

With Pepperdine University celebrating its 75th year, the 2012 Bible Lectures are certainly among the most historic ever. Jerry Rushford, director of the lectures, completes his 30th year of planning and orchestrating this preeminent Bible Lectures series in Malibu. And with that milestone, he steps aside for other endeavors.

It would be difficult to overestimate the impact Dr. Rushford has had on these lectures, on the fellowship of Churches of Christ, and on the work of the Gospel around the world. No one I know has more knowledge of the churches or more acquaintances within the churches than Jerry. And he has worked tirelessly for these past 30 years to create understanding and love between the various segments of the church. The Bible Lectures under his direction have been inclusive rather than narrow, expansive rather than inward thinking, loving rather than suspicious and doubting.

As we look ahead beyond the “Rushford years,” to his credit we are optimistic and enthusiastic about the future of the Bible Lectures, which he has lifted to greater heights. One of the frequent speakers who has helped define the Bible Lectures is Mike Cope, and Mike has graciously agreed to join Pepperdine as Bible Lectures director. In addition, the talented Rick Gibson, who already manages the University brand and communications, has agreed to take on the role of vice president for Public Affairs and Church Relations. Rick will focus on Pepperdine’s efforts to be of significant service to churches across the nation. Though in many ways Jerry Rushford is irreplaceable, he will be on hand, in his role as director of our new Churches of Christ Heritage Center, to assist Mike and Rick in their new capacities. In all these things, our confidence is that the future is bright, as we build on the shoulders of giants.

In the meantime, we invite you to take advantage of this year’s powerful lecture series, “Living Between the Times.” It seems altogether fitting for us to celebrate Dr. Rushford’s monumental contributions with this soaring theme from Romans chapters 5 through 8. And we have prevailed on Jerry to close these lectures on Friday evening with the final lecture of his tenure as director. His not-to-be-missed subject is “The Wondrous Story.”

Welcome to Malibu and Pepperdine’s sparkling campus, provided by God for the purpose of glorifying His magnificent Name. We predict this week will change many lives. May God’s people be edified, and may all of us lift new praises to our glorious King!

As a Christian University, Pepperdine Affirms

THAT GOD IS

That God is revealed uniquely in Christ

That the educational process may not, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process

That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise

That the quality of student life is a valid concern of the University

That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline

That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence

That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible

That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service
Pepperdine was founded in 1937, but it was a few years later, in 1943 during the dark days of World War II, when the Bible Lectures were created to serve the church. Since that time, this spiritual forum has continued to present compelling themes that challenge the church to greater faithfulness. The university has been setting an annual spiritual feast before Christians for nearly seven decades.

During those years, the meal was sometimes meager in terms of the number of keynote addresses and lectures and classes. But for several years now, the Bible Lectures have been on a dramatic rise, growing not merely in attendance but also in spirituality and recognized excellence. We believe this has been true for two reasons: First, God has abundantly blessed us as we placed our trust in Him. We honestly believe that Christ has been exalted here. And second, we have striven for balance, openness, and love. The Bible Lectures are widely seen as a free forum for discussing both our successes and our failures, but more importantly, for advocating a closer walk with God and a more illuminated understanding of His Word.

We have never faced a subject more challenging than “Living Between the Times,” our theme for this year’s series. Our speakers will be called upon to dig deep, to seek God’s powerful help, and to present Paul’s soaring precepts in Romans 5 through 8 with clarity, boldness and passion. We will be focusing on Paul’s telling of the sweeping story of humanity’s fall from paradise and God’s amazing and intricate story of redemption. What a glorious thought: that we can, through Christ, regain what was lost ages ago. All of humanity were taken captive through our ancient ancestors, but in the Lord’s mercy we have the opportunity of finding freedom from enslaving sin through the astounding work of our Redeemer Jesus. The result of our freedom is to be given the power to lead lives of devotion and highest praise to our God. Without God all of us are hopeless, but through Christ we are truly lifted up by hope.

This week we will have an opportunity to learn from many talented teachers who are coming to us from 45 states in the USA and from 35 nations around the world. Of course, one of the things most loved by regular attendees is the heart-warming fellowship of kingdom people. Everywhere across the campus, from early morning till late evening, there will be embraces, laughter, tears, conversations and prayers. It is the sweetest of reunions, the grandest of communions.

We welcome you to the 69th annual Pepperdine Bible Lectures, the largest and most international program in our history. And on a personal note, three of us on the Lectures Team want to express what a blessing it has been to work with Jerry Rushford as he has directed these many lecture programs. We look forward to the future with hope, but the near future contains a bitter-sweetness, as we consider Jerry leaving the team. But we know our God will bless Jerry and his family, as the Lord has richly blessed many of us through Jerry over the years.

Jerry Rushford, Joella Michael, Tami Williamson, and Rick Gibson

When Harold Shank was a teenager, he and his family came to Christ at the East Pike Church of Christ in Indiana, Pennsylvania. Although born in Limerick, Ireland, Sally Tague grew up in Kansas City, Missouri, where the Tagues were members of the Gladstone Church of Christ. Harold and Sally met as students at Oklahoma Christian University. Harold graduated with a B.A. in Bible in 1972 and Sally with a B.A. in Home Economics in 1974. They were married at the Gladstone Church on May 17, 1974.

Following their marriage, they worked with the Highland Street Church of Christ in Memphis, Tennessee. While there Harold completed the M.A. and M.A.R. degrees at Harding School of Theology. Harold and Sally were part of a team sent out by the Highland Church in 1976 to plant the Northtown Church of Christ in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. During the next decade of ministry in Milwaukee, their two sons were born and Harold completed a Ph.D. in Theology at Marquette University.

In 1986, the Shanks returned to Memphis where Harold became the Senior Minister for the Highland Church. The next twenty years saw the congregation grow from 900 to 1500 and start 14 new churches. Sally was an adjunct instructor of Psychology at Austin Peay State University and Family Services Association (1996 to the present), an organization she founded in 1989, which represents approximately 70 childcare agencies across the nation. Harold has authored six books including: Loosening Your Grip (1995); Up Close and Personal—Embracing the Poor (2000); Commentary on the Minor Prophets (2001); Children Mean the World to God (2001); It’s All About God (2004); and Listen to His Heartbeat—What the Bible Says About the Heart of God (2009). Sally is a popular speaker throughout the country at retreats and lectureships and she writes regularly for Power For Today.

OC persuaded the Shanks to return to their alma mater in 2006. Harold became Professor of Old Testament and Sally was an adjunct instructor teaching women's Bible classes and serving as coordinator for the Center for Women's Bible Studies. As members of the Memorial Road Church of Christ, Harold served as an elder and led the congregation in planting the Oakdale Church of Christ in east Oklahoma City. In June 2011, they moved to Vienna, West Virginia, where Harold became the 9th President of Ohio Valley University, a school affiliated with Churches of Christ.

Harold and Sally are the proud parents of two sons. Daniel is finishing a Ph.D. program in Sociology at the University of Georgia, and he is engaged to be married to Victoria McDonald on June 30, 2012. Nathan recently began a Ph.D. program in English at the University of Kentucky. He married Manda Overturf on December 30, 2011. Harold and Sally will celebrate their 38th wedding anniversary on May 17, 2012.

Bible Lectures guests are invited to visit the Churches of Christ Heritage Center in HAC 312 on the second floor of Payson Library.
A Night to Remember. More than 10,000 were at the Los Angeles Sports Arena for the closing night of the 19th Annual Bible Lectures on March 22, 1962. George Pepperdine (on the gurney at right) spoke to the crowd in his last public appearance. He died four months later on July 31, 1962.

Spring has returned to beautiful Southern California, and hundreds of Christians from more than 45 states and more than 35 foreign countries are making their annual pilgrimage to Malibu to attend the Bible Lectures at Pepperdine University. It was at these very lectures fifty years ago, that George Pepperdine lifted the vision of his brothers and sisters in Christ for the last time.

Speaking from a gurney before a crowd of more than 10,000 at the Los Angeles Sports Arena, the frail founder of the college spoke of the joys of being a Christian and urged everyone present to walk closer to God. The crowd gave him a standing ovation.

Rarely can it be said of an educational institution that it is but the lengthening shadow of one person. Yet in the case of Pepperdine University, the continuing influence of the humble and Christ-like life of George Pepperdine is indeed noteworthy.

The story of a Kansas farm boy who parlayed a five dollar investment into a multi-million dollar fortune and then gave most of it away is the stuff of American legend. When George Pepperdine celebrated his 75th birthday on June 20, 1961, he received a telegram from President John F. Kennedy which said in part: "I extend my own congratulations to a man who had the vision to make a fortune and the courage to give it away for the benefit of humanity."

George Pepperdine’s favorite scripture, which has become the motto of the college he founded, was “Freely ye have received, freely give” (Matthew 10:8.) These words of Jesus literally shaped his life, and at the age of fifty, with many attractive opportunities before him, he decided to invest his fortune in the Christian education of young people. He poured nearly $3 million into the land and buildings (more than $50 million in 2012 dollars), established an endowment for the college, and began the task of assembling a corps of dedicated Christians to serve as administrators and faculty.

Mr. Pepperdine had a distinct dream for the college he founded in 1937. He wanted the school to be one of the finest academic institutions in the nation. But he longed for more. There were already hundreds of fine institutions with outstanding programs and eminent faculty. However, he honestly believed that “to educate a man’s mind but not to educate his heart is to make a dangerous man.” He dreamed of a school that educated students from the perspective of a Christian worldview.

When the annual Bible Lectures week was inaugurated in 1943, no one was more supportive than George Pepperdine. He attended every year. In addition to serving as chairman of the board of his college for many years, Mr. Pepperdine served as an elder in the Church of Christ for nearly forty years. He always looked for ways to strengthen the Churches of Christ, and his good works were legendary.

Near the close of his life, when his personal fortune was virtually depleted, George Pepperdine published his autobiography and appropriately called it Faith is My Fortune. At the end of this inspirational volume he wrote:

I am thinking with deep regret that I have had only one life to give for the Cause of Christ, and only one fortune to give to the promotion of Christian education. If I had many more of each, I would gladly give them all for such causes."

It may have been only "one life," but that life touched many lives. As a new generation of Christians assembles for the 69th annual feast of Bible Lectures week, the lengthening shadow of George Pepperdine falls gently over the proceedings. May the faith that sustained this servant-leader be our fortune too.

Jerry Rushford
Lectures Director
President Benton’s Announcement About the Future of Church Relations and Bible Lectures

In naming Cope director of Pepperdine’s Bible Lectures, Benton said the momentum of the lectures will continue to be enhanced and strengthened. “With Mike’s years of ministry leadership, national acclaim as a creator of group worship experiences, and his love for the historical Churches of Christ, he will ensure that Pepperdine’s Bible Lectures will continue to be successful and of significant value to members of the Churches of Christ both here and abroad.”

Cope is a minister, author, lecturer, and prolific writer whose blog has been visited by four million people in the past six years. He was a minister for 27 years, including 18 at the Highland Church of Christ in Abilene, Texas, and eight years at the College Church of Christ in Searcy, Arkansas. He teaches a freshman course at Abilene Christian University each semester, and has delivered the keynote address at Pepperdine’s Bible Lectures more often than any other speaker over the past 30 years.

The former editor of two magazines—21st Century Christian for six years and Wineskins for 12 years—he is the author of five books, including 2011’s Megan’s Secrets: What My Mentally Disabled Daughter Taught Me About Life and One Holy Hunger: When God is All You Want. Megan’s Secrets followed the 1994 death of the Copes’ 10-year old daughter, Megan.

Mike and his wife Diane live in Abilene, Texas. They have been married 33 years and have two children: Matt, a physician, and Chris, a freshman Biblical Text major at Abilene Christian University. Matt and his wife Jenna have two daughters, Reese and Ellie.

Benton underscored that Pepperdine’s Office of Church Relations and the annual Bible Lectures will continue to build on the solid foundation created and sustained by Rushford. “In naming Rick Gibson vice president for Public Affairs and Church Relations, we are placing a strategic initiative at Pepperdine in very capable hands,” continues Benton. “We consider the University’s Christian heritage and ties to the Churches of Christ as a cornerstone of our mission.” Benton added that Gibson, a former minister in the Churches of Christ, has served on the Bible Lectures team and in senior management positions at Pepperdine for a decade, earning the respect of both his colleagues within Pepperdine and members of the Churches of Christ.

Commenting on the new appointments, Rushford notes, “President Benton is to be commended for encouraging these two multi-gifted church leaders to provide leadership and direction in Church Relations and Bible Lectures at Pepperdine. I know the president is elated that they have agreed to serve, and I share his joy.”

Mike Cope and Diane McKee both grew up in Churches of Christ; Mike in Neosho, Missouri, and Diane in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. In the mid-1970s Mike and Diane met at Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas, where they were both students. They were married at the Westside Church of Christ in Searcy on May 11, 1978. In 1979 the Copes moved to Memphis, Tennessee, for Mike to study at Harding School of Theology. He completed the M.Div. degree in 1982 and then moved his family to Wilmington, North Carolina, where he preached for the Pine Valley Church of Christ for two years.

In 1984 Mike was called to be the preacher for the College Church in Searcy, at the time one of the largest congregations of the Church of Christ in the world. Seven years later he accepted the invitation to be the pulpit minister for the 2,200-member Highland Church of Christ in Abilene, Texas. During his years in Abilene, Mike has also served as an adjunct professor at ACU where he teaches classes of 300 university freshmen each semester. In addition to being a graduate of Harding University, Diane earned a Master’s degree from Hardin-Simmons University in the areas of Reading Specialist and Gifted Education. Diane has enjoyed teaching second grade in the Abilene public schools for many years and has taught sixth grade girls on Wednesday nights for 20 years in Searcy and Abilene. In his free-time, Mike has coached Little League baseball and basketball for 15 years and enjoys training for triathlons.

In 1994, the Copes lost their 10-year-old daughter, Megan, who was born with special challenges. Their journey of loss and joy- amid-grief has sharpened their interest in those things that ultimately matter in life. Mike’s book, Megan’s Secrets: What My Mentally Disabled Daughter Taught Me About Life, was published in 2011. In addition to writing Megan’s Secrets, Mike has published four other books: Living in Two Worlds, Righteousness Inside out, One Holy Hunger, and What Would Jesus Do Today? Mike also served as editor of two Christian journals, 20th Century Christian (1986-1992) and Wineskins (1992-2004).

In 2009, after 27 years of full-time ministry with three churches, Mike joined his longtime friend Landon Saunders as part of Heartbeat, a daily internet ministry. Earlier this year he assumed the presidency of the nonprofit corporation, “What Really Matters,” an outgrowth of Heartbeat. His newest endeavor begins in May 2012 as he steps into the position of director of the Pepperdine Bible Lectures.

Mike and Diane are the proud parents of two sons, Matt and Chris. Matt is a physician who graduated from Baylor Medical School in Houston and did his residency in internal medicine at Duke University. He now works at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene. He and his wife, Jenna, have two daughters, Reese and Ellie. Chris is a Biblical Text major at ACU. Mike and Diane will celebrate their 34th wedding anniversary on May 11, 2012.

Anchored in the Past, Committed to the Future

The Pepperdine University Bible Lectures began in January 1943 and were modeled after similar programs at Abilene Christian, David Lipscomb, and Harding universities.

Throughout the years of the 1940s, this significant annual forum grew in popularity, but the early 1950s saw a decline in attendance, and no program was scheduled in 1957.

The Bible Lectures took on new life with the arrival of M. Norvel Young and J. P. Sanders in the fall of that year. By 1961, the keynote lecture program had to be moved to the Shrine Auditorium to accommodate the large numbers of people who wanted to attend. In the following years, the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena became the scene for the largest evening lectures.

The University added a special program of summer Bible Lectures for 10 years beginning in 1958. However, the programs were again declining in attendance by the late 1960s and the summer lectures ended in 1967.

When Pepperdine moved to its new campus in Malibu in 1972, there was a renewal of interest in the Bible Lectures. Since then, the lectures have grown in interest and attendance every year.

As the University moves forward into the future, it is fully committed to pursuing the very highest academic standards within a context which celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. The Department of Church Relations is convinced that many years from now, when Pepperdine University celebrates a century of Bible Lectures, this annual series will continue to be a stimulating forum for the renewal and restoration of New Testament Christianity.

Always ask for the PEPPERDINE RATE when making reservations.

The joining of hands during the singing of “The Lord Bless You and Keep You” is a special closing-night tradition in Firestone Fieldhouse.
For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of GOD, which is in Christ Jesus our LORD.

Romans 8:38-39
King James Version 1611
The Mission of Pepperdine University

Pepperdine is a Christian university committed to the highest standards of academic excellence and Christian values, where students are strengthened for lives of purpose, service, and leadership.
