Him We Proclaim:
A Litany on Christ from Colossians

LEE MAGNUS

This liturgical reading, drawn entirely from Paul’s letter to the Colossians and incorporating almost the entire letter, may be used in whole or in parts in a service of worship. The reading is configured for four voices but may be reconfigured according to its use in worship.

PRAISE: A PRAYER OF THANKS FOR WHAT GOD HAS DONE IN CHRIST (1.3–14)

1 3We thank God,
All the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
1 praying for you always,
2 4having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus
3 and the love that you have for all the saints,
4 5because of the hope laid up for you in heaven
which you heard before in the word of the truth,
All the gospel,
2 6which has come to you,
All as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—
3 as it also does among you, since the day you heard and understood
All the grace of God in truth,

1 9And so, from the day we heard, we continue to pray for you,
2 asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will
3 in all wisdom and spiritual insight,
All 10so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord,
2 fully pleasing to him,
3 bearing fruit in every good work
4 and increasing in the knowledge of God.

1 11May you be strengthened with all power,
2 according to his glorious might,
3 for all endurance and longsuffering,
4 12giving thanks with joy to the Father,
1 who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.
2,3 13He has delivered us from the domain of darkness
All and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son,
4 14in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.
CONFESSION OF FAITH: A PROCLAMATION OF THE PERSON OF CHRIST—PART 1 (1.15–23)

1 15He is the image of the invisible God, all the firstborn of all creation.
2 16For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth,
3 4 visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—
4 All things were created through him and for him.

1 17And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

1 18And he is the head of the body, the church.
2 He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,
3 that in everything he might be preeminent.

All 19For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell,
2 20and through him to reconcile all things to himself, making peace by the blood of his cross,
3 whether on earth or in heaven.

1 21And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds,
2 22he has now reconciled in the body of his flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him,
1 23if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast,
3 and not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven.

COMMITMENT: AN AFFIRMATION OF OUR MINISTRY IN CHRIST (1.25–28, 2.2–4)

1 25I became a minister according to the stewardship of God that was given to me for you,
2 to make the word of God fully known, 26the mystery hidden for ages and generations
3 but now revealed to his saints.
4 27To them God willed to make known among the Gentiles
1 28the riches of the glory of this mystery,
All which is Christ in you, 4 the hope of glory.

EXHORTATION: ADMONITIONS FOR OUR LIFE IN CHRIST (2.6-8, 16-23; 3.1-17)

1 Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, 2 so walk in him, 3 rooted and built up in him, 4 and established in the faith, just as you were taught, 5 abounding in thanksgiving.

2 Beware that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, 3 according to human tradition, 4 according to the elemental spirits of the world, 5 and not according to Christ.

1 Therefore 2 let no one pass judgment on you 3 in matters of food and drink, 4 or as to a festival or new moon or Sabbath. 5 These are a shadow of the things to come, 6 but the substance is of Christ.

1 Let no one disqualify you, 2 insisting on abstinence and worship of angels, 3 going on about what he has seen, 4 puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, 5 and not holding fast to the Head, 6 from whom the whole body, 7 nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, 8 grows with a growth from God.

1 Since with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, 2 don’t submit to regulations— 3 “Don’t handle, 4 Don’t taste, 5 Don’t touch”
12Put on then, as the chosen ones of God, holy and beloved,
2compassion,
3and severity to the body,
4but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh.

1If then you have been raised with Christ,
All seek the things above,
2 where Christ is,
3seated at the right hand of God.

AllThink on things above,
4not on things on the earth.
1 3For you have died,
2and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
3 4When Christ who is your life appears,
4then you also will appear with him in glory.

5Put to death therefore your earthly aspects:
sexual immorality,
impurity,
passion,
evile desire,
and covetousness, which is idolatry.
6On account of these the wrath of God is coming.
7In these you too once walked, when you were living in them.
All8But now you must put them all away:
anger,
wrath,
malice,
slander,
and shameful talk from your mouth.
9Do not lie to one another,
since you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self,
which is being renewed in knowledge
according to the image of its creator.
11Here there is no Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised,
barbarian, Scythian,
slave, free;
but Christ is all, and in all.
12Put on then, as the chosen ones of God, holy and beloved,
3 kindness,
4 humility,
1 gentleness,
2 and longsuffering,
3 bearing with one another
4 and forgiving each other;
1 as the Lord has forgiven you,
All so you also must forgive.

14 And above all these
All put on love,
2 which is the bond of complete maturity.
3 15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
4 to which indeed you were called in one body.
All And be thankful.
1 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
All teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom,
2 singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs,
3 with thankfulness in your hearts to God.
1 17 And whatever you do,
2 in word or in deed,
All do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
3 giving thanks to God the Father through him.

CONFESION OF FAITH: A PROCLAMATION OF THE PERSON OF CHRIST—PART 2 (2.9–15)
1 For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily,
2 and you have been filled in him,
3 who is the head of all rule and authority.
4 11 In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands,
1 by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ,
2 12 having been buried with him in baptism,
3 in which you were also raised with him
All through faith in the working of God,
4 who raised him from the dead.
1 13 And you, who were dead in your trespasses
2 and the uncircumcision of your flesh,
All God made you alive together with him,
3 having forgiven us all our trespasses,
4 by canceling the record of debt against us with its legal demands.
1 This he set aside,
All having nailed it to the cross.
2 15 He disarmed the rulers and authorities
3 and put them to open shame,
4 by triumphing over them in him.
EXHORTATION: CLOSING ADMONITIONS FOR OUR LIFE IN CHRIST (4.2–6)

1 2Continue steadfastly in prayer,
2 being watchful in it with thanksgiving.
3 3At the same time, pray also for us,
4 that God may open to us a door for the word,
All  to speak the mystery of Christ.
1 5Walk wisely toward outsiders,
2 making the best use of the time.
3 6Let your speech always be gracious,
4 seasoned with salt,
so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.

1 18Grace be with you.
2 Grace be with you.
3 Grace be with you.
4 Grace be with you.
All Grace be with you all.
