Part of the Administrative Law Commons, and the Judges Commons

Recommended Citation

This NAALJ Business is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Law at Pepperdine Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of the National Association of Administrative Law Judiciary by an authorized editor of Pepperdine Digital Commons. For more information, please contact Katrina.Gallardo@pepperdine.edu, anna.speth@pepperdine.edu.
MEMBERSHIP PROJECT

NAALJ is conducting a survey of its membership. The information requested in the questionnaire (p. 17) is needed to update and correct the Association mailing list, to explore the possibility of group insurance plans, grant funding, comparative salary studies, and similar projects, and for other internal purposes. The Association may consider publishing a profile of its members, but will not disclose any information without the member’s prior consent.

Please complete the document carefully and return it to Association Treasurer, Marshall L. Rosenberg in New York. The questionnaire may also be used as an application for membership.

IN FUTURE ISSUES

As funds permit, future issues of the NAALJ JOURNAL will contain substantive articles on administrative law and procedure by recognized authorities in the field. The articles will be geared to the particular interests of Administrative Law Judges. In addition, letters to the editor, notes of accomplishment, queries and complaints — almost anything a member wishes to share with his or her colleagues — are invited and encouraged.

Associations’s annual meeting on January 24, 1981. H. Edwin Detlie, Vice President, Odell McGhee, Treasurer and Linda Erickson, Secretary, were the other officers elected at the meeting, which saw the biggest attendance in the history of the Iowa chapter. Past president Ross William reports that the Iowa Association was officially designated to provide training to middle management state employees, and will conduct three day-long sessions during 1981.

* Members who wish to attend the conference (particularly those who have never visited the unsurpassedly beautiful Monterey area) should write to our President-Elect.
