The National Administrative Law Judges Foundation, a public interest arm of the National Association of Administrative Law Judges, is soliciting applications for its 1994 Fellowship in administrative law.

The Fellowship was endowed to encourage research and scholarship for improving State Administrative Adjudication. The 1994 Fellow will focus on principles and techniques for reducing cost and delay in processing administrative adjudication, emphasizing the benefits and detrimental features in the variety of techniques being used, as well as those which should be tried in our state laboratories by administrative law judges.

The candidate selected as 1994 Fellow will prepare an original article for publication in the Journal of the National Association of Administrative Law Judges, and will deliver a fifty-minute oral presentation at the annual meeting and seminar of the NAALJ and NALJF. In addition to the $1,000 cash stipend, the Fellow will receive air transportation, hotel accommodations, and meals at the seminar location. (Seminar location will be selected at this year's October seminar and meeting in St Louis.)

All interested persons are invited to apply. Applicants should submit a detailed outline of the proposed article, together with a writing sample, curriculum vitae, and list of publications, by March 1, 1994. The NALJF will review the submissions and select a Fellow by April 1, 1994. The oral presentation will be on or about October 10, 1994, with the final draft due November 1, 1994.
