Leaven Index Volumes 1-3

Prepared by Tom Nicholas

The following is the first index for LEAVEN. This index covers the three volumes to date. It has been divided into four major subject headings in which all contributions have been entered. These subject headings are broad and are provided to help identify the nature of the articles listed and are by no means meant to be infallible. Following the subject headings is a comprehensive index of the contributors. Book reviews have been kept separate from all other contributions and are listed by book author and reviewer following the primary index.

Features and Articles: This section contains informative articles which are centered upon a topic, text or historical subject.

Reflections and Meditations: These articles are of a subjective nature. The authors provide their thoughts and experiences as a springboard for the reader to further investigate or reflect upon the subject matter.

Resources: Here the reader is provided with information which may serve as a resource within their ministry.

Worship and Liturgy: These contributions are directly related to the worship service.

Book Reviews: †Denotes a book review in brief. ††Denotes a movie review.
