PEPPERDINE WELCOMED USS JOHN PAUL JONES TO MALIBU FOR MALIBU NAVY DAYS!

Pepperdine University and the Malibu community welcomed the USS John Paul Jones, an Arleigh Burke-class guided-missile destroyer, to Malibu for “Malibu Navy Days” in June. Commander Chris Cegielski and his crew got to enjoy a weekend in Malibu and the community got to show their appreciation for the members of the U.S. Navy.

The weekend came to fruition via a team effort of the Malibu Chamber of Commerce, Pepperdine University, Malibu Navy League and the City of Malibu. Together they coordinated a host of events and special opportunities for the visiting sailors with an outpouring support of the entire community. Among the events hosted or coordinated by Pepperdine were transporting the sailors to Pepperdine to use the athletic facilities, a Getty Museum tour, sand volleyball at Malibu beach, transportation to local churches, and a festive evening barbecue generously hosted by the Adamson family.

Pepperdine is proud to have an opportunity to express our gratitude and serve our sailors. Crest wants to give special thanks to the following people for their contributions to the success of this historic event; Gary Hanson, executive Vice President, greeted the commander and crew at the pier during the welcoming ceremony. Crest Advisory Board member John Zambetti organized the music for the event. Pepperdine Ambassador Council students Joshua Tuz, Chris Athens, and Danielle Demaria worked at the welcoming reception and the dinner to greet the sailors and guests. Pepperdine alumnus Chris Garcia posted American flags on the Malibu Pier and coordinated gifts for each of the 270 crew through Pepperdine friend Scott Hubbell. Kirsten Bradford, Pepperdine alumna, brought Miss Malibu and friends to welcome and entertain the sailors. Alumni Mary Steele and her daughter Angela Steele and Mat MacDonell organized volleyball with the sailors next to the pier and Mat also worked with a local donor to support the barbecue at the Adamsons’ ranch. Pepperdine staff Phil Mays, Greg Cornell, Deirdre Shipstead, and Stacy Rothenberg, as well as Crest student workers Alexandria Gardner and Zach Palsson, gave of their time and energy for this event as volunteers. Ron Hall took great photos to document the event. Crest Advisory Board Member Anne Payne and her husband John Payne President of the Malibu Navy League also played an integral role in many events throughout the weekend.
